

OFFICE OF THE OMBUDSMAN

FOCUSED ON YOUR SERVICE

The Office of the Ombudsman is a single point of contact for family members, advocates, and concerned citizens to report complaints on behalf of youth committed to the Georgia Department of Juvenile Justice.

The Department protects the rights of youth in DJJ care and custody to ensure they are treated respectfully and safeguarded against bullying, harassment or sexual abuse.

As DJJ's agency-wide "problem solver", the Ombudsman is responsible for independently investigating complaints and attempting to resolve them in an impartial and objective manner.
