

2015 Georgia Mental Health Symposium: Trauma-Informed Diversion of Youth

August 11, 2015

9:00 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Georgia Public Safety Training Academy Auditorium
1000 Indian Springs Drive, Forsyth, Georgia 31029

Recommended for all professionals working in the field of Juvenile Justice, the 2015 Georgia Mental Health Symposium will focus on the important topic of developing diversion programs for youth with serious trauma or mental health backgrounds. Related issues associated with accurate mental health screenings and assessment through proper tools and techniques will be discussed. Whether you are a judge, juvenile court administrator, attorney, JPPS, JPM, or mental health provider, the 2015 Georgia Mental Health Symposium will provide the networking and information you need for the mental health challenges presented by today's youth.

FEATURED SPEAKERS:

Dr. Keith Cruise
Fordham University
Department of Psychology

Dr. Damion Grasso
University of Connecticut
Department of Psychiatry

JUDGES AND COURT STAFF:

LEARN MORE ABOUT JUVENILE JUSTICE REFORM
DIVERSION PROGRAMS AND MENTAL HEALTH
SCREENING AND ASSESSMENT

REGISTER FOR FREE AT WWW.SURVEYMONKEY.COM/S/3YCB8XW

Participating agencies include the Department of Juvenile Justice, Fulton County Juvenile Court, Division of Family and Children Services, Georgia Parent Support Network, Georgia Center for Child Advocacy, View Point Health, Lookout Mountain Community Services, and Family Connections.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, EMAIL CHRISTINEDOYLE@DJJ.STATE.GA.US