

Community

Come Join the Fun!

Door Prizes, Refreshments and Games

*Youth will learn in an Interactive and Fun
Environment:*

- ✓ Why Community Service is Important.
- ✓ The Proper Etiquette when Participating in Community Service.
- ✓ How being a Community Service Volunteer can Help Them.
- ✓ Local Agencies that Utilize Youth as Community Service Volunteers.

Free
Community Services Workshop
for Youth ages 13 & over
Thursday, June 28th, 2012
1:00 pm until 3:00 pm

Hosted by the Department of Juvenile Justice
Effingham Court Services Office

Workshop Location:
Effingham County Extension Office
284 Hwy 119 S, Springfield

*Located on Hwy 119 across the road from the Effingham County Animal Shelter on the hill.

To RSVP or for Additional Information
Contact:

Mrs. Bragg at 912-754-6223

DJJ youths participating in this workshop will receive 2 hours of community service credit. Youth will have the opportunity to earn up to 5 additional credit hours by bringing in any of the following items to the workshop: 5 non-perishable food items (1 hr credit), 1 package of diapers (5 hrs credit), 2 packs of baby wipes (1 hr credit), 1 New Mesh or Clear bookbag (5 hrs credit) .

Seating is limited.

Please call to reserve your spot by Friday, June 22, 2012