

Community

Come Join the Fun!

Door Prizes, Refreshments and Activities

*Youth will learn in an Interactive and Fun
Environment:*

- ✓ Why Community Service is Important.
- ✓ The Proper Etiquette when Participating in Community Service.
- ✓ How being a Community Service Volunteer can Help Them.
- ✓ Local Agencies that Utilize Youth as Community Service Volunteers.

Free
Community Services Workshop
for Youth ages 13 & over
Thursday, October 18th, 2012
1:00 pm until 3:00 pm

Hosted by the
Department of Juvenile Justice
Effingham Court Services Office

Workshop Location:
Effingham County Administrative Complex
601 N. Laurel Street, Springfield

*Located across the street from the Department of Juvenile Justice

To RSVP or for Additional Information Contact:

Mrs. Bragg at 912-754-6223

Youths participating in this workshop will receive 2 hours of community service credit. Youth who bring to the workshop a four (4) pack or larger of toilet tissue will receive an additional hour of community service credit.

Seating is limited.

Please call to reserve your spot by Wednesday, October 17, 2012