Department of Juvenile Justice: JULY RECRUITING DJJ Hiring Correctional Officers at Atlanta Job Fairs

(ATLANTA - GA) The Georgia Juvenile Justice Recruiting Team is focused on Atlanta this summer, searching for top-notch candidates to post in professional corrections officer positions at two Metro Atlanta area secure facilities.

Georgia Juvenile Justice Commissioner Avery D. Niles is dispatching teams of recruiters to DJJ job fairs on July 9th, July 15th and July 22nd to find and interview qualified candidates for Juvenile Corrections Officer (JCO 1) positions. DJJ is prepared to immediately hire JCO's for the Metro Regional Youth Detention Center (RYDC) and the Atlanta Youth Development Campus (YDC), both in the Atlanta Metro area.

The Department of Juvenile Justice has immediate openings for qualified veterans and other mature applicants with the professional drive to help juvenile offenders achieve successful reentry into society as productive Georgia citizens.

Besides the basic requirements, Commissioner Niles says fulltime juvenile corrections careers require candidates with special personal motivation like workplace problem-solving abilities and proven leadership skills. "DJJ is a great place to make your work count," Commissioner Niles says.
